1. BACKGROUND

The European Border and Coast Guard Agency (Frontex) has been established under Regulation (EU) 2016/1624 of 14 September 2016. The agency was created on the foundations of the European Agency for the Management of Operational Cooperation at the External Borders of the Member States of the European Union (established under Council Regulation (EC) No 2007/2004), which has been coordinating operational activities at the EU external border since 2005.

Frontex is located in Warsaw, Poland and is in the process of significantly increasing the size of its staff from the current number of more than 700 to become the largest EU Agency.

The Agency's key tasks include:

- Operational and technical assistance to the EU member states at their external borders by coordinating joint border control operations including deployment of vessels, aircraft and other equipment and border and coast guards from EU countries;
- Coordination of border surveillance and law enforcement activities being part of maritime security in cooperation with national authorities and EU agencies such as Europol, EMSA and EFCA;
- Situation monitoring of EU's external borders and risk analysis of all aspects of border and coast guard management, including assessment of the EU Member States' border control authorities' ability to face migratory pressure and different challenges at their external borders;
- Assisting Member States in returning nationals of non-EU countries who do not have the right to remain on the territory of the EU;
- Development of training programmes for European border and coast guards;

¹ For existing EU temporary staff 2(f) applicants for whom Article 55 the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS) is applicable.

² Date of publication: 17 September 2019.

- Monitoring new technological developments in the field of border control and acting as an interface between research institutions, industry and national border and coast guard authorities;
- Cooperation with EU and international organisations in the area of border and coast guard management, security, and prevention of cross-border crime (including terrorism);
- Assist non-EU countries in the context of technical and operational cooperation on border management including return of non-EU nationals, in the framework of the EU external relations policy.

For more information, please refer to our website: <http://www.frontex.europa.eu>.

2. THE RISK ANALYSIS UNIT (RAU)

The Risk Analysis Unit (RAU) together with the Frontex Situation Centre (FSC), the Vulnerability Assessment Unit (VAU), the Information Fusion Centre (IFC), and the Business Management and Development Office (BMD), are placed under the Situational Awareness and Monitoring Division (SAM).

The SAM is a key component of Integrated Border Management, thus enabling its implementation EU-wide by Frontex and by the national authorities of Member States forming the European Border and Coast Guard. SAM is therefore oriented towards operational actors and contributes by fulfilling their information and intelligence needs. The Division drives operational responses to challenges at the EU's external borders and supports decision-making on EU border management and border security, in particular when assessing Member States vulnerabilities. The Division is also increasingly working on its maritime dimension in line with the development of Coast Guard functions entrusted to the Agency. It mobilises and fuses a wide range of sources of information from human intelligence, patrolling activities, aerial surveillance and satellite imagery.

The Frontex Risk Analysis Unit (RAU) is responsible for providing solid evidence to support decisions in all areas covered by European integrated border management, especially border control, return, irregular secondary movements of third-country nationals within the Union, prevention of cross-border crime including the facilitation of unauthorised border crossings, trafficking in human beings, terrorism and threats of a hybrid nature, as well as about the situation in source and transit third countries.

The Risk Analysis Unit is responsible for delivering timely, accurate, and relevant assessments, intelligence products and integrated data services. The Unit's products and services provide an early warning mechanism that helps Member States to monitor migratory flows towards and within the European Union, as well as trends and other potential security challenges at the external borders of the EU.

The Risk Analysis Unit maintains the methodologies and the (data) tools that are applied for risk analysis by the Agency and the Member States, such as the Common Integrated Risk Analysis Model (CIRAM) and its links to the Common Vulnerability Assessment Methodology (CVAM), the Third Country Intelligence Methodology, risk analysis networks with Member States and other partners, intelligence gathering activities, including the collection of relevant and necessary personal data.

Main tasks

- a) monitoring and analysing migratory flows towards and within the Union, EU border management and EU border security-related developments based on the Common Integrated Risk Analysis Model, with a strong forward-looking and predictive orientation;
- b) providing regular and periodical intelligence-based advice and information covering the entire scope of the Integrated Border Management;
- c) informing on specific thematic areas requiring analytical expertise, such as return, document fraud, trafficking in human beings, cross-border crime, terrorism and threats of a hybrid nature;
- d) developing and maintaining risk analysis methodologies and networks centred around the Common Integrated Risk Analysis Model, but also focusing on the links to the Common Vulnerability Assessment Methodology, the maritime domain risk analysis methodology and the Third Country Monitoring and Analysis Methodology, inter alia, thus forming a methodological central point of reference for the SAM activities;
- e) monitoring migratory flows from origin and transit countries, and monitoring the conditions in third countries that are prone to generating, facilitating or channelling threats in the full scope of integrated border management affecting the external borders of the EU;
- f) providing the operational activities of Frontex with an intelligence-led approach by making available analytical inputs to the overall planning, by providing continuous assessments during the implementation phases, and by contributing to the final evaluation of the results of the articulated operational response;

- g) regularly determining the level of impact at the sea and land border sections based on the Common Risk Analysis Methodology, foreseen by the Eurosur Regulation;
- h) collecting information on modus operandi, routes used, push and pull factors and personal data that may lead to the identification of suspects involved in human smuggling, cross-border crimes and terrorism;
- i) processing personal data regarding cross-border crime activities or irregular migration collected and transmitted by Member States or by Frontex staff, in the context of joint operations, pilot projects and rapid border interventions, or by migration support teams, for the purpose of risk analysis and for transmission to Europol, Eurojust, EASO and the Member States.

3. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES LINKED TO THE POST

Reporting to the Head of Sector Operational Analysis,

1. The Personal Data Analyst is responsible for:

- Supporting the development of new projects related to the implementation of the European Border and Coast Guard Regulation concerning the processing of personal data of suspects, victims and witnesses of cross border crime collected during Frontex operational activities;
- Assisting with the organisation of intelligence collection activities in Frontex operational activities;
- Pre-processing quantitative and qualitative intelligence and personal data collected by Member States, according to the European Border and Coast Guard Regulation;
- Managing relational databases containing personal data in accordance with the Data Protection Regulation (EC) 2018/1725;
- Using specialized software and analytical techniques to support the drafting of operational risk analysis products that underpin Frontex operational activities and the drafting of risk analysis products that support senior EU decision-makers dealing with emerging and on-going criminal issues;
- Contributing to enhancing inter-agency cooperation in the field of assigned tasks;
- Using personal data and contextual information to form cases for onward transmission to other European Union law enforcement agencies;
- Drafting reports and delivering presentations on data quality and reporting issues;
- Providing assistance in project management activities;
- Collating statistics, drafting reports and delivering presentations relating to the analysis of personal data;
- Following the latest developments in the area of risk analysis methodologies.

2. The Operational Analyst is responsible for:

- Providing analytical support in the planning, operational phase, and final evaluation of joint operations, rapid interventions and pilot projects;
- Delivering tailored, high quality analysis on the nature and scope of illegal migration and associated cross-border criminal activities;
- Assisting with the organisation of intelligence collection activities in Frontex operational activities;
- Collecting and processing the necessary data according to the best practices in the field;
- Preparing risk assessments, reports, letters, briefing notes and responses to enquiries;
- Supporting the organization of meetings, workshops, seminars and network cooperation in the field of unit/sector activities;
- Supporting and implementing the working cooperation with other Frontex units/sectors promoting the best practices and knowledge-sharing;
- Maintaining and proper archiving of the relevant analytical files in the database;
- Developing and implementing Sector's activities, in particular by contributing to the implementation of the tasks assigned in the Programme of Work.

4. QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE REQUIRED

4.1. Eligibility criteria (for external applicants³)

To be eligible, an applicant shall:

- a) Possess a level of education which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma when the normal period of university education is three years or more (of full-time education);

Only qualifications that have been awarded in EU Member States or that are subject to the equivalence certificates issued by the authorities in EU Member States shall be taken into consideration.

Only the required education will be taken into account.

- b) Possess (by the closing date for applications) at least 3 years of proven full-time professional experience after the diploma was awarded and (at the same time) after the condition(s) described in criterion a) above are fulfilled;

Professional experience will be taken into account after the award of the minimum qualification certifying the completion of the level of studies required above in the criterion a). Only duly documented professional activity is taken into account.

ANY GIVEN PERIOD OF STUDIES OR PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE MAY BE COUNTED ONLY ONCE. In order to be calculated as eligible, years of studies or professional experience to be taken into account shall not overlap with other periods of studies or professional experience, e.g. if the applicant had a full-time job and did freelance consultancy work in the evenings and weekends, the days spent on the latter will not be added to the period). In case of part-time work the professional experience will be calculated pro-rata in line with the workload stated by the applicant. Compulsory military service or equivalent civilian service accomplished after achieving the minimum qualification stated in the first two bullet points shall be taken into consideration as professional experience if the official documentation is provided.

- c) Produce evidence of thorough knowledge of one of the languages of the European Union and of satisfactory knowledge of another language of the European Union to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: B2 level);
- d) Be a citizen of one of the Member States of the European Union or the Schengen Associated Countries and enjoy full rights as its citizen;
- e) Have fulfilled any obligations imposed on him/her by the laws of the country of citizenship concerning military service.

Additionally, in order to be engaged, the appointed applicant shall:

- f) Produce the appropriate character references as to his/her suitability for the performance of duties (a criminal record certificate or equivalent certificate, not older than six months) and a declaration in relation to interests that might be considered prejudicial to his/her independence;
- g) Be physically fit to perform the duties⁴;
- h) For reasons related to the Frontex working requirements, be available at short notice for the job.

4.2. Selection criteria

Suitability of applicants will be assessed against the following criteria in different steps of the selection procedure. Certain criteria will be assessed/scored only for shortlisted applicants during interviews (and or tests):

4.2.1. Professional competences

1. At least 3 years of professional analytical experience in the areas described in the job duties, preferably in an international context;

17. Excellent presentation, interpersonal and communication skills in English, and ability to communicate clearly and precisely to different audiences both orally and in writing.

5. INDEPENDENCE AND DECLARATION OF INTEREST

The selected applicant(s) will be required to make a declaration of commitment to act independently in Frontex' interest and to make a declaration in relation to interests that might be considered prejudicial to his/her independence.

6. EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

Frontex applies an equal opportunities policy and accepts applications without distinction on grounds of age, race, political, philosophical or religious conviction, sex or sexual orientation and regardless of disabilities, marital status or family situation.

7. SELECTION PROCEDURE

The selection procedure includes the following steps:

- After registration, each application is checked in order to verify whether it meets the eligibility criteria;
- All the eligible applications are evaluated by an appointed Selection Committee based on a combination of certain selection criteria defined in the vacancy notice (some criteria will be assessed/scored only for shortlisted applicants during interviews and/or tests). Certain selection criteria may be assessed/scored jointly and some criteria may be assessed/scored in two or more steps of the selection procedure;
- The most-qualified applicants who obtain the highest number of points within the application evaluation and who are matching best the evaluated selection criteria will be shortlisted and invited for a competency test and an interview; the names of the members of the Selection Committee will be disclosed to the applicants invited for the test and interview;

- The test and interview will be conducted in English;
- During the interviews and tests, the Selection Committee will examine the profiles of shortlisted applicants and assess their relevancy for the post in question. Certain selection criteria may be assessed/scored jointly and some criteria may be assessed/scored in two or more steps of the selection procedure;
- Applicants invited to the test and interview will be requested to present, on the day of the interview or test, originals of their diploma(s) and evidence of their professional experience clearly indicating the starting, finishing dates and scope of work and workload;
- As a result of the interview and test, the Selection Committee will recommend the most suitable applicant(s) for the post in question to the Executive Director of Frontex. An additional interview with another relevant manager may be arranged before the Executive Director takes the final decision. Suitable applicants will be proposed for a reserve list, which may also be used to fill similar vacant posts depending on the needs of Frontex. This reserve list will be valid for 2 years (the validity period may be extended). Each interviewed applicant will be notified in writing whether he/she has been placed on the reserve list. Applicants should note that the placement on the reserve list does not guarantee an employment offer.

The work and deliberations of the Selection Committee are strictly confidential and any contact of an applicant with its members is absolutely forbidden.

8. APPOINTMENT AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

The most successful applicant will be selected and appointed by the Executive Director of Frontex.

The successful external applicant will be engaged as temporary staff pursuant to Article 2(f) of the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Communities (CEOS). The temporary post in question is placed in the following function group and grade: AD6⁵. This is a non-managerial position.

The remuneration is expressed in EUR, after the compulsory deductions set out in the Staff Regulations or in any implementing regulations is weighted by the correction coefficient for Poland (currently 68.6). It can be paid either in EUR or in PLN according to a fixed exchange rate (currently 4.3631 PLN/EUR).

The remuneration of the staff members, the correction coefficient and the exchange rate are updated annually before the end of each year, with retroactive effect from 1 July, in accordance with Annex XI of the Staff Regulations.

Staff pays an EU tax at source and deductions are also made for medical insurance, pension and unemployment insurance. Salaries are exempt from national taxes. The rate of the solidarity levy is 6 %.

The headquarters agreement with the Polish authorities is effective as of 1 November 2017. Under this agreement the Polish authorities will provide the following main benefits to Frontex expatriate staff:

- (a) reimbursement of tuition cost of each dependent child (as from the age of 2.5 years) attending a school (up to and including secondary school) on Polish territory up to a limit of 35 000 PLN per school year;
- (b) reimbursement of VAT on purchases of main household effects to assist a newcomer to settle in Warsaw;
- (c) reimbursement of VAT on a purchase of a private car (this entitlement is renewable after 36 months).

Additionally, this agreement foresees that (an accredited) European School will be set-up in Warsaw in the future to allow dependent children of all Frontex staff (including Polish nationals) to attend a (tuition-free) European-type multilingual education.

Staff is entitled to annual leave of two working days per each complete calendar month of service. On top of that, staff is entitled to a number of additional days of leave depending on the grade, age and distance from the place of origin. In addition, there are on average 18 public holidays per year. Special leave is granted for certain circumstances such as marriage, birth or adoption of a child, etc.

Frontex being a knowledge based organization acknowledges the importance of training provided to its staff. Frontex provides general and technical nature training as well as professional development opportunities that are discussed annually during the staff performance appraisal.

Throughout the period of service staff is a member of the EU pension scheme. The pension is granted after completing a minimum of 10 years' service and after reaching the pensionable age of 66 years. The pensionable age for staff recruited before 1 January 2014 varies between 60 and 65 years. Pension rights acquired in one or more national schemes before starting to work at Frontex may be transferred into the EU pension system.

Staff is covered 24/7 and worldwide by the Joint Sickness Insurance Scheme (JSIS). Staff is insured against sickness, the risk of occupational disease and accident as well as entitled under certain conditions to a monthly unemployment allowance, the right to receive payment of invalidity allowance and travel insurance.

For further information on working conditions please refer to the Staff Regulations and the CEOS.

A contract of employment will be offered for a period of five years, with a probationary period of nine months. The contract may be renewed.

Frontex requires selected applicants to sensitive posts to undergo a security screening procedure and obtain a positive national opinion or respective personal security clearance. The level of the latter depends on the specific post. For this post, the required level of clearance is specified on the title page of the Vacancy Notice. Applicants who currently hold a valid security clearance at the above-mentioned level (or higher) may not need to obtain a new one, pending confirmation from their respective National Security Authority. They shall provide Frontex with a security clearance certificate specifying the issuing authority, level and date of expiry. In case the validity of the security clearance expires within six months, a renewal procedure shall be initiated expeditiously. In case selected applicants do not currently hold a valid and positive security clearance at the above-mentioned level, Frontex will request such from the National Security Authority of the applicants' state of citizenship. In case of a failure to obtain the required security clearance certificate or if the National Security Agency issues a negative opinion at the above-mentioned level after the signature of the contract of employment Frontex has the right to terminate the contract of employment.

9. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA

Frontex ensures that applicants' personal data are processed in accordance with Article 5(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data.
