1. BACKGROUND

The European Border and Coast Guard Agency (Frontex) has been established under Regulation (EU) 2016/1624 of 14 September 2016. The agency was created on the foundations of the European Agency for the Management of Operational Cooperation at the External Borders of the Member States of the European Union (established under Council Regulation (EC) No 2007/2004), which has been coordinating operational activities at the EU external border since 2005.

Frontex is located in Warsaw, Poland and is in the process of significantly increasing the size of its staff from the current number of more than 720 to meet its expanded tasks.

The Agency's key tasks include:

- Operational and technical assistance to the EU Member States at their external borders by coordinating joint border control operations including deployment of vessels, aircraft and other equipment and border and coast guards from EU countries;
- Coordination of border surveillance and law enforcement activities being part of maritime security in cooperation with national authorities and EU agencies such as Europol, EMSA and EFCA;
- Situation monitoring of EU's external borders and risk analysis of all aspects of border and coast guard management, including assessment of the EU Member States' border control authorities' ability to face migratory pressure and different challenges at their external borders;

¹ Subject to a decision of the EU budgetary authority on EU budget 2020.

³ For all existing EU temporary staff 2(f) applicants who currently occupy a middle management post and for whom Article 55 the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS) is applicable.

⁴ Date of publication: 19 November 2019.

- Assisting Member States in returning nationals of non-EU countries who do not have the right to remain on the territory of the EU;
- Development of training programmes for European border and coast guards;
- Monitoring new technological developments in the field of border control and acting as an interface between research institutions, industry and national border and coast guard authorities;
- Cooperation with EU and international organisations in the area of border and coast guard management, security, and prevention of cross-border crime (including terrorism);
- Assist non-EU countries in the context of technical and operational cooperation on border management including return of non-EU nationals, in the framework of the EU external relations policy;
- Performing any other tasks, as mentioned in Article 45 of Regulation 2018/1725 of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data.

For more information, please refer to our website: <http://www.frontex.europa.eu>.

2. DESCRIPTION OF THE ENTITY

The Data Protection Office (DPO) ensures, in an independent manner, the internal application of Regulation (EU) No 2018/1725, the EBCG Regulation concerning the processing of personal data and any other applicable rules. It ensures that the Agency only processes personal data for the performance of tasks carried out in the public interest on the basis of the Treaties establishing the European Union, the EBCG Regulation or in the legitimate exercise of official authority vested in the Agency or in a third party to whom the data are disclosed.

Within the DPO, the Data Protection Officer appointed by and accountable to the Executive Director performs an independent function directly reporting to the Executive Director, assuming at the same time the role of the Head of Office.

3. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES LINKED TO THE POST

Reporting to the Executive Director, the Data Protection Officer - Head of Data Protection Office is responsible for:

- Managing the Data Protection Office;
- Ensuring compliance with the applicable legal regime in the area of data protection also in the context of the Agency's potential decentralisation of functions;
- Informing and advising data controllers, data processors and staff members who carry out processing operations in the course of their obligations pursuant to the applicable legal regime in place for EU institutions, bodies and agencies including the assignment of responsibilities and the related audits;
- Monitoring compliance with, raising awareness and providing training on the applicable legal regime in place for EU institutions, bodies and agencies, with internal data protection provisions and with the policies of the controller or processor in relation to the protection of personal data;
- Ensuring that data subjects are informed of their rights and obligations;
- Where requested, providing advice as regards to personal data breaches;
- Where requested, providing advice as regards the data protection impact assessment and monitoring its performance or the need for prior consultation of the data protection impact assessment;
- Consulting with the European Data Protection Supervisor on the need for a data protection impact assessment or on the need for a prior consultation;
- Preparing and drafting templates, guidelines and procedures for different processing operations, including data protection impact assessments;
- Responding to requests from the European Data Protection Supervisor, cooperating with and consulting at the request of the supervisory authority or on the data protection officer's own initiative;
- Ensuring that the rights and freedoms of data subjects are not adversely affected by processing operations.

4. QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE REQUIRED

⁸ Specific conditions about grading are defined on the title page of the Vacancy Notice. For existing EU temporary staff 2(f) from other EU bodies interested in an inter-agency mobility and internal applicants, the classification in grade and step should be established in line with Article 55 of the CEOS.

(up to and including secondary school) on Polish territory up to a limit of 35 000 PLN per school year; (b) reimbursement of VAT on purchases of main household effects to assist a newcomer to settle in Warsaw; (c) reimbursement of VAT on a purchase of a private car (this entitlement is renewable after 36 months).

Additionally, this agreement foresees that (an accredited) European School will be set-up in Warsaw in the future to allow dependent children of all Frontex staff (including Polish nationals) to attend a (tuition-free) European-type multilingual education.

Staff is entitled to annual leave of two working days per each complete calendar month of service and to additional days of leave depending on the grade and age. Moreover, two and a half days are granted every year to the staff members entitled to the expatriation or foreign residence allowance for the purpose of visiting their home country. In addition, there are on average 18 public holidays per year. Special leave is granted in certain circumstances such as marriage, birth or adoption of a child, removal etc.

Frontex being a knowledge based organization acknowledges the importance of training provided to its staff. Frontex provides general and technical nature training as well as professional development opportunities that are discussed annually during the staff performance appraisal.

Throughout the period of service staff is a member of the EU pension scheme. The pension is granted after completing a minimum of 10 years' service and after reaching the pensionable age of 66 years. The pensionable age for staff recruited before 1 January 2014 varies between 60 and 65 years. Pension rights acquired in one or more national schemes before starting to work at Frontex may be transferred into the EU pension system.

Staff is covered 24/7 and worldwide by the Joint Sickness Insurance Scheme (JSIS). Staff is insured against sickness, the risk of occupational disease and accident as well as entitled under certain conditions to a monthly unemployment allowance, the right to receive payment of invalidity allowance and travel insurance.

For further information on working conditions please refer to the Staff Regulations and the CEOS.

A contract of employment will be offered for a period of five years, with a probationary period of nine months. The contract may be renewed.

Frontex requires selected candidates to undergo a vetting procedure executed by the National Security Authority of the candidates' state of citizenship in order to obtain a personnel security clearance. The level of the latter depends on the specific post/position. For this position, the required level of clearance is specified on the title page of the Selection Notice. Candidates who currently hold a valid personnel security clearance at the above-mentioned level (or higher) may not need to obtain a new one, pending confirmation from their respective National Security Authority. The National Security Authority of the candidate shall provide Frontex, with an opinion or a personnel security clearance in accordance with relevant national legislation. In case selected candidates do not currently hold a valid security clearance at the above-mentioned level, Frontex will request such from the National Security Authority of the candidates' state of citizenship. In case of a failure to obtain the required personnel security clearance or if the National Security Agency issues a negative opinion at the above-mentioned level after the signature of the contract of employment Frontex has the right to terminate the contract of employment.

9. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA

Frontex ensures that applicants' personal data are processed in accordance with Article 5(1)(a) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data.

Please note that Frontex will not return applications to applicants. This is due, in particular, to the confidentiality and security of such data.

The legal basis for the selection procedures of temporary staff are defined in the CEOS⁹.

The purpose of processing personal data is to enable to properly carry out selection procedures.

The selection procedure is conducted under the responsibility of the Human Resources Sector of the Human Resources and Security Unit, within the Corporate Governance of Frontex (HR Sector). The controller for personal data protection purposes is the Head of the Human Resources and Security Unit.

6. In case you have technical issues with filling/saving/uploading your electronic application form, you may write to us (in advance of the closing date for submission of applications) at jobs@frontex.europa.eu.

In case you submit more than one application for this procedure, Frontex will only assess the latest one and will automatically disregard all your previous applications.

If at any stage of the selection procedure it is established that any of the requested information provided by an applicant is false or misleading, the applicant in question will be disqualified.

Applicants shortlisted for an interview will be requested to supply documentary evidence in support of the statements made in the application. Do not, however, attach any supporting or supplementary documentation with your application until you have been asked to do so by Frontex.

Incomplete applications, applications uploaded after the deadline, sent by e-mail or applications using inappropriate or altered/manipulated application forms will be automatically disregarded by the system and will not be processed further.

Due to the large volume of applications, Frontex regrets that only applicants invited for the test and interview will be notified about the outcomes. The status of the recruitment procedure is to be found on Frontex website.

Due to high volume of selection procedures handled by Frontex, the period between the closing date for the submission of applications and the final shortlisting of applicants for an interview may take more than two months.

The closing date (and time) for the submission of applications is provided on the title page of the Vacancy Notice.

Please keep a copy of the automatically generated submission code that proves that you have submitted/uploaded your application to Frontex.

Applicants are strongly recommended not to wait until the last day to submit their applications.

Frontex cannot be held responsible for any last-minute malfunction due to an overload of the system or for other technical issues applicants may eventually encounter in the very last moment before the deadline.
