1. BACKGROUND

The European Border and Coast Guard Agency (Frontex) has been established under the European Border and Coast Guard Regulation³. The agency was created on the foundations of the European Agency for the Management of Operational Cooperation at the External Borders of the Member States of the European Union (established under Council Regulation (EC) No 2007/2004), which has been coordinating operational activities at the EU external border since 2005.

Frontex is located in Warsaw, Poland and is in the process of significantly increasing the size of its staff from the current number of more about 750 to meet its expanding tasks.

The Agency's key tasks include:

- Operational and technical assistance to the EU member states at their external borders by coordinating joint border control operations including deployment of vessels, aircraft and other equipment and border and coast guards from EU countries;
- Coordination of border surveillance and law enforcement activities being part of maritime security in cooperation with national authorities and EU agencies such as Europol, EMSA and EFCA;
- Situation monitoring of EU's external borders and risk analysis of all aspects of border and coast guard management, including assessment of the EU Member States' border control authorities' ability to face migratory pressure and different challenges at their external borders;
- Assisting Member States in returning nationals of non-EU countries who do not have the right to remain on the territory of the EU;

¹ For existing EU temporary staff 2(f) applicants for whom Article 55 the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS) is applicable.

² Date of publication: 09 July 2020.

³ Regulation (EU) 2019/1896 of 13 November 2019 on the European Border and Coast Guard (OJ L 295, 14.11.2019, p.1).

- Development of training programmes for European border and coast guards;
- Monitoring new technological developments in the field of border control and acting as an interface between research institutions, industry and national border and coast guard authorities;
- Cooperation with EU and international organisations in the area of border and coast guard management, security, and prevention of cross-border crime (including terrorism);
- Assist non-EU countries in the context of technical and operational cooperation on border management including return of non-EU nationals, in the framework of the EU external relations policy.

For more information, please refer to our website: <http://www.frontex.europa.eu>.

2. THE LIAISON OFFICERS NETWORKS UNIT (LOU)

The mission of the Liaison Officers Networks (LOU) is to develop and maintain the networks of Frontex Liaison Officers (FLOs) deployed in Member States, in third countries and other organisations and to ensure their effective and timely contribution to the Agency's operational goals.

The LOU manages the back-office for the networks of Frontex Liaison Officers deployed by the Agency in EU Member States and in third countries in close cooperation with the Corporate Governance Division for the provision of support services.

The head of the Liaison Officers Networks Unit acts as the head of the Back-Office and the Reporting Officer for all Liaison Officers deployed by the Agency. The main tasks of the Unit are:

- a) supporting, monitoring and guiding the FLO's work through the back-office, ensuring the quality of their work, facilitating their interaction with internal and external stakeholders, and encouraging synergies;
- b) acting as the central point of contact for channelling information and requests between Frontex and the FLOs, without prejudice to direct contact between FLOs and Frontex entities on regular operational matters;
- c) assessing and processing FLO reports for follow-up actions and further use of a wider group of internal and external stakeholders; and setting up reporting and information exchange workflows and tools to support them;
- d) negotiating and updating the relevant legal frameworks for the deployment of FLOs, such as administrative arrangements and MoUs;
- e) developing and coordinating FLO pre-deployment, including support to HR during their recruitment process, coordination of the FLO pre-deployment trainings and other;
- f) without prejudice to the provisions of the European Travel Information and Authorisation System (ETIAS), ensuring an Agency-wide approach and workflows for interaction with liaison officers posted by EU Member States, third countries, international organisations and EU entities to Frontex HQ or the respective embassies in Warsaw; and acting as the institutional point of contact for those liaison officers;
- g) providing support and guidance to FLOs, monitoring and supervising their work, assessing and processing relevant outcomes of their activities (reports), ensuring the quality of their work, facilitating their interaction with the Agency's entities and external partners, and encouraging synergies among one another;
- h) regularly monitoring, assessing and providing recommendations on the functioning of the FLO networks, identifying potential gaps and future needs for deployment.

3. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES LINKED TO THE POST

Under the supervision of and reporting to the Head of Liaison Officers Networks Unit (LOU), the jobholder will be responsible for the following tasks:

Operational role

- Facilitating and supporting the implementation of the working arrangements in place with the competent authorities of the Eastern Partnership countries (Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Georgia, Moldova and Ukraine);
- Facilitating and encouraging the operational cooperation and coordination between Frontex and the Eastern Partnership countries in line with the Agency's mandate and Annual Programme of Work, including in the area of return (pre-return, return, post-arrival and post-return activities);

- Establishing and maintaining contacts with the relevant authorities/institutions of the Eastern Partnership countries involved in border management, migration management, prevention and detection of cross-border crime, including terrorism, with the aim to foster operational cooperation, facilitate information sharing and support joint analytical work (e.g. under the umbrella of the Eastern Partnership Risk Analysis Network);
- Cooperating with the European External Action Service/EU Delegations in the Eastern Partnership countries as well as other relevant EU bodies in the region;
- Monitoring the border management situation including cross-border crime and migration flows that transit through or towards the region and ultimately towards the EU, contributing to maintaining an updated situational picture;
- Producing field assessments, reports, letters, briefing notes as well as ad hoc responses to enquiries or requests for information from Frontex Headquarters;
- Monitoring and reporting on key developments that could impact on the EU's external borders and internal security;
- Contributing to events, projects or activities which Frontex is managing, supporting or is invited to;
- Facilitating and supporting the implementation of possible bilateral cooperation between the EU Member States and Eastern Partnership countries;
- Supporting the implementation of Frontex actions carried out in the territory of the Eastern Partnership countries where and when appropriate;
- Contributing to the implementation of the Regulation (EU) 2019/1240 of 20 June 2019 on the creation of a European network of immigration liaison officers in coordination with the European Migration Liaison Officer, fostering the development of a local and regional network of immigration liaison officers.

Liaison role

- Liaising with the designated National Frontex Points of Contact in the Eastern Partnership countries;
- Liaising and exchanging information with the European Migration Liaison Officer for the Eastern Partnership region and other immigration liaison officers, JHA/immigration attachés, diplomatic and consular staff (including Schengen local cooperation) of the respective EU Member States and Schengen Associated Countries' diplomatic missions accredited to the Eastern Partnership countries;
- Liaising with relevant regional and international organisations in the Eastern Partnership countries;
- Establishing and maintaining contacts with national authorities, civil society and other local stakeholders in the field of border management, migration management, prevention and detection of cross-border crime, including terrorism.

Supporting role

- Coordinating and assisting in the organisation of meetings, trainings, workshops, seminars and other activities held by Frontex in the Eastern Partnership countries;
- Supporting the implementation of technical assistance projects led by Frontex in the Eastern Partnership countries, as might be required.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION:

- (1) Initially, the Senior Liaison Officer to the Eastern Partnership countries will be employed in Frontex Headquarters in Warsaw, Poland and will be required to undergo specific induction training. It is envisaged that the Senior Liaison Officer will be transferred in the interest of the service to an office in Kyiv, Ukraine located within the premises of the EU Delegation.
- (2) In specific areas, the FLO may need to operate under the supervision of the Head of EU Delegation.
- (3) The allowance for living conditions pursuant to Article 10 of Annex X to the EU Staff Regulations is currently applicable to Ukraine.
- (4) Frequent and regular travelling to the other non-EU countries of the Eastern Partnership region is foreseen.

4. QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE REQUIRED

4.1. Eligibility criteria (for external applicants⁴)

To be eligible, an applicant shall:

- a) Possess a level of education which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma when the normal period of university education is four years or more (of full-time education);

or

Possess a level of education which corresponds to completed university studies attested by a diploma followed by at least one year full-time professional experience, when the normal period of university education is at least three years (of full-time education);

Only qualifications that have been awarded in EU Member States or that are subject to the equivalence certificates issued by the authorities in EU Member States shall be taken into consideration.

Only the required education will be taken into account.

- b) Possess (by the closing date for applications) at least 9 years of proven full-time professional experience acquired after the diploma was awarded and (at the same time) after the condition(s) described in criterion a) above are fulfilled;

Professional experience will be taken into account after the award of the minimum qualification certifying the completion of the level of studies required above in the criterion a). Only duly documented professional activity is taken into account.

ANY GIVEN PERIOD OF STUDIES OR PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE MAY BE COUNTED ONLY ONCE. In order to be calculated as eligible, years of studies or professional experience to be taken into account shall not overlap with other periods of studies or professional experience, e.g. if the applicant had a full-time job and did freelance consultancy work in the evenings and weekends, the days spent on the latter will not be added to the period). In case of part-time work the professional experience will be calculated pro-rata in line with the workload stated by the applicant. Compulsory military service or equivalent civilian service accomplished after achieving the minimum qualification stated in the first two bullet points shall be taken into consideration as professional experience if the official documentation is provided.

- c) Produce evidence of thorough knowledge of one of the languages of the European Union and of satisfactory knowledge of another language of the European Union to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties (Common European Framework of Reference for Languages: B2 level);
- d) Be a citizen of one of the Member States of the European Union or the Schengen Associated Countries and enjoy full rights as its citizen;
- e) Have fulfilled any obligations imposed on him/her by the laws of the country of citizenship concerning military service.

8. Knowledge of other languages spoken in Eastern Partnership countries.

4.2.2. Personal qualities and competences

9. Capability to organise, manage and deliver expected results, including the ability to cope with stress in relation to demanding and multiple tasks, heavy workload, time pressure and tight deadlines in a rapidly evolving work environment;
10. Proven ability to live, work and stay highly motivated in a country with non-EU living conditions (preferably in at least one country of the Eastern Partnership);
11. Professional and ethical behaviour, strong sense of initiative, responsibility, commitment and customer-oriented work ethic;
12. Excellent networking, presentation, interpersonal and communication skills (ability to communicate clearly and precisely to different audiences both orally and in writing) in English;
13. Ability to work effectively both autonomously as well as within a diverse team in a multicultural environment (good team-working and team-building skills).

5. INDEPENDENCE AND DECLARATION OF INTEREST

The selected applicant(s) will be required to make a declaration of commitment to act independently in Frontex' interest and to make a declaration in relation to interests that might be considered prejudicial to his/her independence.

6. EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES

Frontex applies an equal opportunities policy and accepts applications without distinction on grounds of age, race, political, philosophical or religious conviction, sex or sexual orientation and regardless of disabilities, marital status or family situation.

7. SELECTION PROCEDURE

The selection procedure includes the following steps:

- After registration, each application is checked in order to verify whether it meets the eligibility criteria;
- All the eligible applications are evaluated by an appointed Selection Committee based on a combination of certain selection criteria defined in the vacancy notice (some criteria will be assessed/scored only for shortlisted applicants during interviews and/or tests). Certain selection criteria may be assessed/scored jointly and some criteria may be assessed/scored in two or more steps of the selection procedure;
- Best-qualified applicants who obtain the highest number of points within the application evaluation and who are matching best the evaluated selection criteria will be shortlisted and invited for a competency test and an interview; the names of the members of the Selection Committee will be disclosed to the applicants invited for the test and interview. Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted;
- The test and interview will be conducted in English and partly in Russian;
- During the interviews and tests, the Selection Committee will examine the profiles of shortlisted applicants and assess their relevancy for the post in question. Certain selection criteria may be assessed/scored jointly and some criteria may be assessed/scored in two or more steps of the selection procedure;

⁵ As defined by the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages
(<https://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/resources/european-language-levels-cefr>)

- Applicants invited to the test and interview will be requested to present, on the day of the interview or test, originals of their diploma(s) and evidence of their professional experience clearly indicating the starting, finishing dates and scope of work and workload;
- As a result of the interview and test, the Selection Committee will recommend the most suitable applicant(s) for the post in question to the Executive Director of Frontex. An additional interview with the Executive Director and/or another relevant manager may be arranged before the Executive Director takes the final decision. Suitable applicants will be proposed for a reserve list, which may also be used to fill similar vacant posts depending on the needs of Frontex. This reserve list will be valid for 2 years (the validity period may be extended). Each interviewed applicant will be notified in writing whether he/she has been placed on the reserve list. Applicants should note that the placement on the reserve list does not guarantee an employment offer.

The work and deliberations of the Selection Committee are strictly confidential and any contact of an applicant with its members is absolutely forbidden.

8. APPOINTMENT AND CONDITIONS OF EMPLOYMENT

The most successful applicant will be selected and appointed by the Executive Director of Frontex.

In order to be engaged, the appointed applicant shall:

- Be available for the job at short notice (not later than 4 months after the job offer is made);

c. Dependent child allowances for each child	308 EUR 1 311 PLN	308 EUR 1 311 PLN
d. Preschool allowance	75 EUR 320 PLN	75 EUR 320 PLN
e. Education allowance for each child up to	418 EUR 1 778 PLN	418 EUR 1 778 PLN

⁷ Specific conditions about grading are defined on the title page of the Vacancy Notice. For existing EU temporary staff 2(f) the classification in grade and step should be established in line with Article 55 of the CEOS.

The remuneration is expressed in EUR, after the compulsory deductions set out in the Staff Regulations or in any implementing regulations is weighted by the correction coefficient for Poland (currently 73.6 %). It can be paid either in EUR or in PLN according to a fixed exchange rate (currently 4.2567 PLN/EUR).

The remuneration of the staff members, the correction coefficient and the exchange rate are updated annually before the end of each year, with retroactive effect from 1 July, in accordance with Annex XI of the Staff Regulations.

Staff pays an EU tax at source and deductions are also made for medical insurance, pension and unemployment insurance. Salaries are exempt from national taxes. The rate of the solidarity levy is 6 %.

The headquarters agreement with the Polish authorities is effective as of 1 November 2017. Under this agreement the Polish authorities may provide the following main benefits to Frontex expatriate staff⁸:

- (a) reimbursement of tuition cost of each dependent child (as from the age of 2.5 years) attending a school (up to and including secondary school) on Polish territory up to a limit of 35 000 PLN per school year;
- (b) reimbursement of VAT on purchases of main household effects to assist a newcomer to settle in Warsaw;
- (c) reimbursement of VAT on a purchase of a private car (this entitlement is renewable after 36 months).

Additionally, this agreement foresees that (an accredited) European School will be set-up in Warsaw in the future to allow dependent children of all Frontex staff (including Polish nationals) to attend a (tuition-free) European-type multilingual education.

Remuneration conditions applicable for the place of employment in Kyiv, Ukraine:

Candidates are deemed to be fully aware of the local living conditions in Kyiv before applying.

Candidates should also ensure that they are fully aware of the provisions of Annex X to the Staff Regulations⁹ defining special and exceptional provisions applicable to staff serving in a third country (including obligations, working conditions, emoluments and family allowances and social security benefits). Under these provisions the remuneration is paid in EUR with weighting of 100 % (no correction coefficient is applied). Additional allowances payable to staff, depending on each situation, may refer to: temporary and permanent accommodation, travel on taking up duty, place of recruitment/origin, removal, etc.

The amounts below are calculated for a candidate without dependents, including as payments and deductions: living condition allowance for Ukraine (currently 25%), expatriation allowance (16%), complementary sickness insurance and accident insurance.

Function group, grade and step	AD8 Step 1	AD8 Step 2
Net salary* (incl. 25 % allowance for living conditions and 16 % expatriation allowance) *calculated for a staff member without any dependents	8 113 EUR	8 408 EUR

Staff is entitled to annual leave of two working days per each complete calendar month of service and to additional days of leave depending on the grade and age. Moreover, two and a half leave days are granted every year to the staff members entitled to the expatriation or foreign residence allowance for the purpose of visiting their home country. In addition, there are on average 18 public holidays per year. Special leave is granted for certain circumstances such as marriage, birth or adoption of a child, etc.

Frontex being a knowledge based organization acknowledges the importance of training provided to its staff. Frontex provides general and technical nature training as well as professional development opportunities that are discussed annually during the staff performance appraisal.

Throughout the period of service staff is a member of the EU pension scheme. The pension is granted after completing a minimum of 10 years' service and after reaching the pensionable age of 66 years. The pensionable age for staff recruited before 1 January 2014 varies between 60 and 65 years. Pension rights acquired in one or more national schemes before starting to work at Frontex may be transferred into the EU pension system.

Staff is covered 24/7 and worldwide by the Joint Sickness Insurance Scheme (JSIS). Staff is insured against sickness, the risk of occupational disease and accident as well as entitled under certain conditions to

- For recruited applicants: the data are kept for a period of 10 years after the termination of employment or as of the last pension payment and after this time the data are destroyed.

Applicants have the right to request access to and rectification or restriction of processing concerning the data subject or, where applicable, the right to object to processing or the right to data portability. In case of identification data, applicants can rectify those data at any time during the procedure. In the case of data related to the eligibility or selection criteria, the right of rectification can only be exercised by submitting/uploading a new application and it cannot be exercised after the closing date for submission of applications. Withdrawal of a consent to such data processing operations would result in exclusion of the candidate from the recruitment and selection procedure.

¹⁰ In particular the provisions governing conditions of engagement in Title II, Chapter 3.

Should an applicant have any query concerning the processing of his/her personal data and has substantiated request, he/she shall address them to the HR Sector at jobs@frontex.europa.eu or Frontex Data Protection Officer at dataprotectionoffice@frontex.europa.eu.

Applicants may have recourse at any time to the European Data Protection Supervisor (edps@edps.europa.eu).

10. APPEAL PROCEDURE

If an applicant considers that he/she has been adversely affected by a particular decision related to the selection procedure, he/she can lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Union and Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union, laid down by Council Regulation (EEC, Euratom, ECSC No 259/68)¹¹, mentioning the reference number of the selection procedure, at the following address:

Frontex
Human Resources Sector
Plac Europejski 6
00-844 Warsaw
Poland

The complaint must be lodged within 3 months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure starts to run from the time the applicant is notified of the act adversely affecting him/her.

Applicants also have a possibility to complain to the European Ombudsman. Please note that complaints made to the European Ombudsman have no effect on the time period laid down in Article 91 of the Staff Regulations. Note also, that under Article 2(4) of the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman's duties, any complaint lodged with the Ombudsman must be preceded by the appropriate administrative approaches to the institutions and bodies concerned.

11. APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Note: It is required to upload the digital application form saved in its original electronic dynamic PDF format (not scanned). Do not use any e-mail communication to submit your application (for exceptional circumstances see point 6 below) - such an application will be automatically disregarded and will not be recorded and further processed.

Frontex Application Form is to be downloaded (as a dynamic PDF form) from Frontex website under the link provided next to the Reference Number of the post/position. This digital application form is specifically created only for this selection procedure (and shall not be reused for another procedure).

The Frontex Application Form must:

1. Be opened in a PDF reader in a MS Windows equipped computer - the recommended version of the PDF reader is Adobe Acrobat Reader DC (version 2017.009.20044. You may download a free version here: <https://get.adobe.com/uk/reader/>).
2. Not be manipulated or altered. The form is digitally signed and protected against any manipulation or changes. Therefore, applicants shall not try to manipulate and/or alter it - in such a case the digital signature will disappear and the application form will become invalid for subsequent processing resulting in an automatic rejection of such submission.
3. Be completed in English. Fields, where you may enter your input, are highlighted in light blue colour. Fields marked with an asterisk (*) indicate a required input. You should be concise, the space for your input is limited by the size of the text boxes.
4. Be saved and named as follows: 'SURNAME_RCT-2020-00051'.
5. Be submitted to Frontex - after saving - by uploading it to this URL link:

<https://microsite.frontex.europa.eu/en/recruitments/RCT-2020-00051>

¹¹ OJ L 56, 4.3.1968, p. 1, as last amended by Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 1023/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 22 October 2013, OJ L 287, 29.10.2013, p. 15.

6. In case you have technical issues with filling/saving/uploading your electronic application form, you may write to us (in advance of the closing date for submission of applications) at jobs@frontex.europa.eu.

In case you submit more than one application for this procedure, Frontex will only assess the latest one and will automatically disregard all your previous applications.

If at any stage of the selection procedure it is established that any of the requested information provided by an applicant is false or misleading, the applicant in question will be disqualified.

Applicants shortlisted for an interview will be requested to supply documentary evidence in support of the statements made in the application. Do not, however, attach any supporting or supplementary documentation with your application until you have been asked to do so by Frontex.

Incomplete applications, applications uploaded after the deadline, sent by e-mail or applications using inappropriate or altered/manipulated application forms will be automatically disregarded by the system and will not be processed further.

Due to the large volume of applications, Frontex regrets that only applicants invited for the test and interview will be notified about the outcomes. The status of the recruitment procedure is to be found on Frontex website.

Due to high volume of selection procedures handled by Frontex, the period between the closing date for the submission of applications and the final shortlisting of applicants for an interview may take more than two months.

The closing date (and time) for the submission of applications is provided on the title page of the Vacancy Notice.

Please keep a copy of the automatically generated submission code that proves that you have submitted/uploaded your application to Frontex.

Applicants are strongly recommended not to wait until the last day to submit their applications.

Frontex cannot be held responsible for any last-minute malfunction due to an overload of the system or for other technical issues applicants may eventually encounter in the very last moment before the deadline.
