1. BACKGROUND

The European Border and Coast Guard Agency (Frontex) has been established under the European Border and Coast Guard Regulation³. The agency was created on the foundations of the European Agency for the Management of Operational Cooperation at the External Borders of the Member States of the European Union (established under Council Regulation (EC) No 2007/2004), which has been coordinating operational activities at the EU external border since 2005.

Frontex is located in Warsaw, Poland, and is in the process of significantly increasing the size of its staff to 2000 to meet its expanding tasks.

The Agency's key tasks include:

- Operational and technical assistance to the EU member states at their external borders by coordinating joint border control operations including deployment of vessels, aircraft and other equipment and border and coast guards from EU countries;
- Coordination of border surveillance and law enforcement activities being part of maritime security in cooperation with national authorities and EU agencies such as Europol, EMSA and EFCA;
- Situation monitoring of EU's external borders and risk analysis of all aspects of border and coast guard management, including assessment of the EU Member States' border control authorities' ability to face migratory pressure and different challenges at their external borders;
- Assisting Member States in returning nationals of non-EU countries who do not have the right to remain on the territory of the EU;
- Development of training programmes for European border and coast guards;
- Monitoring new technological developments in the field of border control and acting as an interface between research institutions, industry and national border and coast guard authorities;

¹ For existing EU temporary staff 2(f) applicants for whom Article 55 the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS) is applicable.

² Date of publication: 11 September 2020.

³ Regulation (EU) 2019/1896 of 13 November 2019 on the European Border and Coast Guard (OJ L 295, 14.11.2019, p.1).

- Cooperation with EU and international organisations in the area of border and coast guard management, security, and prevention of cross-border crime (including terrorism);
- Assist non-EU countries in the context of technical and operational cooperation on border management including return of non-EU nationals, in the framework of the EU external relations policy.

2. THE TRAINING UNIT

Mission

The Frontex Training Unit (TRU) provides a coherent, integrated and centralised education and training system that operates in line with the Capability Development Plan. The Unit contributes to developing and maintaining the European Border and Coast Guard Teams in readiness for deployment. It establishes and further develops common core curricula for the training of border guards and common training standards fostering the development of a common European border and coast guard culture as key element of the European Integrated Border Management.

Frontex training activities are implemented by means of educational state of the art technologies and a sound quality assurance mechanism.

Main tasks

- a) establishing and improving the capabilities of staff deployed or participating in Frontex coordinated operational activities aimed at increasing the effectiveness of multinational forces and their ability to carry out assigned duties effectively.
- b) providing specialised training in areas covered by the EBCG Regulation aimed at increasing the capacities and capabilities of the Member States and, in close cooperation with the IEC Division, delivering support to third countries in the context of the implementation of the Agency's mandate.
- c) establishing, maintaining and developing educational standards from the basic level up to the Master level based on the Sectoral Qualifications Framework (SQF) for Border and Coast Guarding in the context of integrated border management;
- d) fostering co-operation between the border and coast guard training institutions in the Member States as well as strengthening cooperation with JHA agencies in training, and promoting the sharing of expertise in education through exchange programmes and granting schemes;
- e) further developing and maintaining support networks for training and enhancing the capacity building in third countries to manage migration flows and counter serious cross-border crime;
- f) establishing and maintaining a quality assurance mechanism for the development, delivery, evaluation and improvement of training, ensuring that operational competences are achieved;
- g) providing educational support services, incl. support to the training and certification of trainers;
- h) maintaining an ICT platform and integrating innovative technological solutions to enhance learning and support processes across all training activities.

3. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES LINKED TO THE POST

Under the supervision of and reporting to the Head of the Operational Training Sector within Training Unit (TRU), the Training Officer:

- Plans, manages and carries out training activities and projects, including organisation of meetings, conferences, training events and development activities;
- Develops terms of reference for acquiring necessary expertise and services and ensures sound and effective contract management in line with the applicable financial regulations;
- Ensures a sound and effective budget implementation within the scope of the role;
- Contributes to the sector management by providing support to the Head of Sector for coordinating the planning, implementation, timely delivery, quality output of training products and/or services of the sector and their evaluation in accordance with the programme of work;

- Reviews management information, providing business insight and working alongside colleagues to help deliver the objectives set by the Frontex Single Programming Document in the area of training;
- Develops and maintains collaborative professional networks, liaising with EU Member States' experts, other relevant education and training professionals, representatives of national organisations with border and coast guard responsibilities across the EU, relevant international organisations and Frontex business units, and other relevant stakeholders;
- Represents the Agency in external events, visits, meetings and other relevant EU and international fora according to the mandate;
- Performs other tasks assigned by the Head of Unit.

4. QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE REQUIRED

4.1. Eligibility criteria (for external applicants⁴)

To be eligible, an applicant shall:

Applicants have the right to request access to and rectification or restriction of processing concerning the data subject or, where applicable, the right to object to processing or the right to data portability. In case of identification data, applicants can rectify those data at any time during the procedure. In the case of data related to the eligibility or selection criteria, the right of rectification can only be exercised by submitting/uploading a new application and it cannot be exercised after the closing date for submission of applications. Withdrawal of a consent to such data processing operations would result in exclusion of the candidate from the recruitment and selection procedure.

Should an applicant have any query concerning the processing of his/her personal data and has substantiated request, he/she shall address them to the HR Sector at jobs@frontex.europa.eu or Frontex Data Protection Officer at dataprotectionoffice@frontex.europa.eu.

Applicants may have recourse at any time to the European Data Protection Supervisor (edps@edps.europa.eu).

10. APPEAL PROCEDURE

If an applicant considers that he/she has been adversely affected by a particular decision related to the selection procedure, he/she can lodge a complaint under Article 90(2) of the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Union and Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union, laid down by Council Regulation (EEC, Euratom, ECSC No 259/68)⁹, mentioning the reference number of the selection procedure, at the following address:

⁸ In particular the provisions governing conditions of engagement in Title II, Chapter 3.

⁹ OJ L 56, 4.3.1968, p. 1, as last amended by Regulation (EU, Euratom) No 1023/2013 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 22 October 2013, OJ L 287, 29.10.2013, p. 15.

Frontex
Human Resources Sector
Plac Europejski 6
00-844 Warsaw
Poland

The complaint must be lodged within 3 months. The time limit for initiating this type of procedure starts to run from the time the applicant is notified of the act adversely affecting him/her.

Applicants also have a possibility to complain to the European Ombudsman. Please note that complaints made to the European Ombudsman have no effect on the time period laid down in Article 91 of the Staff Regulations. Note also, that under Article 2(4) of the general conditions governing the performance of the Ombudsman's duties, any complaint lodged with the Ombudsman must be preceded by the appropriate administrative approaches to the institutions and bodies concerned.

11. APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Note: It is required to upload the digital application form saved in its original electronic dynamic PDF format (not scanned). Do not use any e-mail communication to submit your application (for exceptional circumstances see point 6 below) - such an application will be automatically disregarded and will not be recorded and further processed.

Frontex Application Form is to be downloaded (as a dynamic PDF form) from Frontex website under the link provided next to the Reference Number of the post/position. This digital application form is specifically created only for this selection procedure (and shall not be reused for another procedure).

The Frontex Application Form must:

1. Be opened in a PDF reader in a MS Windows equipped computer - the recommended version of the PDF reader is Adobe Acrobat Reader DC (version 2017.009.20044). You may download a free version here: <https://get.adobe.com/uk/reader/>.
2. Not be manipulated or altered. The form is digitally signed and protected against any manipulation or changes. Therefore, applicants shall not try to manipulate and/or alter it - in such a case the digital signature will disappear and the application form will become invalid for subsequent processing resulting in an automatic rejection of such submission.
3. Be completed in English. Fields, where you may enter your input, are highlighted in light blue colour. Fields marked with an asterisk (*) indicate a required input. You should be concise, the space for your input is limited by the size of the text boxes.
4. Be saved and named as follows: 'SURNAME_RCT-2020-00064'.
5. Be submitted to Frontex - after saving - by uploading it to this URL link:
<https://microsite.frontex.europa.eu/en/recruitments/RCT-2020-00064>
6. In case you have technical issues with filling/saving/uploading your electronic application form, you may write to us (in advance of the closing date for submission of applications) at jobs@frontex.europa.eu.

In case you submit more than one application for this procedure, Frontex will only assess the latest one and will automatically disregard all your previous applications.

If at any stage of the selection procedure it is established that any of the requested information provided by an applicant is false or misleading, the applicant in question will be disqualified.

Applicants shortlisted for an interview will be requested to supply documentary evidence in support of the statements made in the application. Do not, however, attach any supporting or supplementary documentation with your application until you have been asked to do so by Frontex.

Incomplete applications, applications uploaded after the deadline, sent by e-mail or applications using inappropriate or altered/manipulated application forms will be automatically disregarded by the system and will not be processed further.

Due to the large volume of applications, Frontex regrets that only applicants invited for the test and interview will be notified about the outcomes. The status of the recruitment procedure is to be found on Frontex website.

Due to high volume of selection procedures handled by Frontex, the period between the closing date for the submission of applications and the final shortlisting of applicants for an interview may take more than two months.

The closing date (and time) for the submission of applications is provided on the title page of the Vacancy Notice.

Please keep a copy of the automatically generated submission code that proves that you have submitted/uploaded your application to Frontex.

Applicants are strongly recommended not to wait until the last day to submit their applications.

Frontex cannot be held responsible for any last-minute malfunction due to an overload of the system or for other technical issues applicants may eventually encounter in the very last moment before the deadline.
