1. BACKGROUND

The European Border and Coast Guard Agency (Frontex) has been established under the European Border and Coast Guard Regulation³. The agency was created on the foundations of the European Agency for the Management of Operational Cooperation at the External Borders of the Member States of the European Union (established under Council Regulation (EC) No 2007/2004), which has been coordinating operational activities at the EU external border since 2005.

Frontex is located in Warsaw, Poland, and is in the process of significantly increasing the size of its staff to 2000 to meet its expanding tasks.

The new European Border and Coast Guard Regulation provides for the establishment of a European Border and Coast Guard Standing Corps, which will consist of up to 10 000 operational staff by 2027, and will be deployed along the external land, sea and air borders of the European Union and the Schengen Area.

With the establishment of the Standing Corps - the first European law enforcement uniformed corps - Frontex offers a unique, pioneering opportunity to form part of the EU's operational arm for European integrated border management. The establishment and operations of the Standing Corps gives rise to various novel legal challenges and risks. The selected candidate will have a chance to significantly contribute to the application of the EU law in this area by developing creative legal solutions in cooperation with internal and external partners.

The Agency's key tasks include:

- Operational and technical assistance to the EU member states at their external borders by coordinating joint border control operations including deployment of vessels, aircraft and other equipment and border and coast guards from EU countries;

¹ For all existing EU temporary staff 2(f) applicants for whom Article 55 the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS) is applicable.

² Date of publication: 19 November 2020.

³ Regulation (EU) 2019/1896 of 13 November 2019 on the European Border and Coast Guard (OJ L 295, 14.11.2019, p.1).

- Coordination of border surveillance and law enforcement activities being part of maritime security in cooperation with national authorities and EU agencies such as Europol, EMSA and EFCA;
- Situation monitoring of EU's external borders and risk analysis of all aspects of border and coast guard management, including assessment of the EU Member States' border control authorities' ability to face migratory pressure and different challenges at their external borders;
- Assisting Member States in returning nationals of non-EU countries who do not have the right to remain on the territory of the EU;
- Development of training programmes for European border and coast guards;
- Monitoring new technological developments in the field of border control and acting as an interface between research institutions, industry and national border and coast guard authorities;
- Cooperation with EU and international organisations in the area of border and coast guard management, security, and prevention of cross-border crime (including terrorism);
- Assist non-EU countries in the context of technical and operational cooperation on border management including return of non-EU nationals, in the framework of the EU external relations policy.

2. THE TRAINING UNIT

Mission

The Frontex Training Unit (TRU) provides a coherent, integrated and centralised education and training system that operates in line with the Capability Development Plan. The Unit contributes to developing and maintaining the European Border and Coast Guard Teams in readiness for deployment. It establishes and further develops common core curricula for the training of border guards and common training standards fostering the development of a common European border and coast guard culture as key element of the European Integrated Border Management.

Frontex training activities are implemented by means of educational state of the art technologies and a sound quality assurance mechanism.

Main tasks

- a) establishing and improving the capabilities of staff deployed or participating in Frontex coordinated operational activities aimed at increasing the effectiveness of multinational forces and their ability to carry out assigned duties effectively.
- b) providing specialised training in areas covered by the EBCG Regulation aimed at increasing the capacities and capabilities of the Member States and, in close cooperation with the IEC Division, delivering support to third countries in the context of the implementation of the Agency's mandate.
- c) establishing, maintaining and developing educational standards from the basic level up to the Master level based on the Sectoral Qualifications Framework (SQF) for Border and Coast Guarding in the context of integrated border management;
- d) fostering co-operation between the border and coast guard training institutions in the Member States as well as strengthening cooperation with JHA agencies in training, and promoting the sharing of expertise in education through exchange programmes and granting schemes;
- e) further developing and maintaining support networks for training and enhancing the capacity building in third countries to manage migration flows and counter serious cross-border crime;
- f) establishing and maintaining a quality assurance mechanism for the development, delivery, evaluation and improvement of training, ensuring that operational competences are achieved;
- g) providing educational support services, incl. support to the training and certification of trainers;
- h) maintaining an ICT platform and integrating innovative technological solutions to enhance learning and support processes across all training activities.

3. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES LINKED TO THE POST

Under the supervision of and reporting to the Head of the Operational Training Sector within Training Unit (TRU), the Training Support Officer will contribute to the development, implementation and administration of Frontex specialized training courses and products in the specific areas of Operational Health and Safety and Use of Force, firearms and ammunition in a law enforcement context, delivered to support capacity and capability development for the European Standing Corps and to foster the implementation of EU Integrated Border management (IBM). Working closely with the operational stakeholders of Training Unit, the jobholder will contribute to the implementation of onsite and online training activities as planned in the Frontex Single Programming Document and the Annual Programme of Work. Furthermore, the Training Support Officer will be responsible for liaising with the Training Support Sector in the promotion of e-learning products and their upkeep. She/he will also support the development and implementation of online products and the creation of a blended learning portfolio in the thematic area assigned.

The main tasks related to the post are:

- to provide support to the development of training content as well as to the visual design of the training products according to the identified needs, applying modern technologies and tools for graphic design;
- to provide support to the design, development and evaluation of onsite and online training activities and actively contribute to their delivery;
- to organize and moderate onsite and online expert meetings and workshops and support the development of specialized learning products for border and coast guarding education in the areas of Operational Health and Safety and/or Use of Force, firearms and ammunition in a law enforcement context;
- to provide support to training the trainers, facilitate their work and monitor their performance;
- to liaise with internal and external stakeholders and support the identification of training needs;
- to produce reports and draft administrative documents.

4. QUALIFICATIONS AND EXPERIENCE REQUIRED

4.1. Eligibility criteria (for external applicants⁴)

To be eligible, an applicant shall:

The remuneration of the staff members, the correction coefficient and the exchange rate are updated annually before the end of each year, with retroactive effect from 1 July, in accordance with Annex XI of the Staff Regulations.

Staff pays an EU tax at source and deductions are also made for medical insurance, pension and unemployment insurance. Salaries are exempt from national taxes. The rate of the solidarity levy is 6 %.

The headquarters agreement with the Polish authorities is effective as of 1 November 2017. Under this agreement the Polish authorities may provide the following main benefits to Frontex expatriate staff⁷:

(a) in case a child may not be admitted to a European School - reimbursement of tuition cost of each dependent child (as from the age of 2.5 years) attending a school (up to and including secondary school) on Polish territory up to a limit of 35 000 PLN per school year;

(b) reimbursement of VAT on purchases of main household effects to assist a newcomer to settle in Warsaw;

(c) reimbursement of VAT on a purchase of a private car (this entitlement is renewable after 36 months).

An (accredited⁸) European School is gradually being set-up in Warsaw to allow dependent children of all Frontex staff (including Polish nationals) to attend a (tuition-free) European-type multilingual education.

Staff is entitled to annual leave of two working days per each complete calendar month of service and to additional days of leave depending on the grade and age. Moreover, two and a half leave days are granted every year to the staff members entitled to the expatriation or foreign residence allowance for the purpose of visiting their home country. In addition, there are on average 18 public holidays per year. Special leave is granted for certain circumstances such as marriage, birth or adoption of a child, etc.

⁶ Specific conditions about grading are defined on the title page of the Vacancy Notice. For existing EU temporary staff 2(f) the classification in grade and step should be established in line with Article 55 of the CEOS.

⁷ Staff of non-Polish nationality and non-permanent residents.

⁸ The process of accreditation is ongoing.

Frontex being a knowledge based organization acknowledges the importance of training provided to its staff. Frontex provides general and technical nature training as well as professional development opportunities that are discussed annually during the staff performance appraisal.

Throughout the period of service staff is a member of the EU pension scheme. The pension is granted after completing a minimum of 10 years' service and after reaching the pensionable age of 66 years. The pensionable age for staff recruited before 1 January 2014 varies between 60 and 65 years. Pension rights acquired in one or more national schemes before starting to work at Frontex may be transferred into the EU pension system.

Staff is covered 24/7 and worldwide by the Joint Sickness Insurance Scheme (JSIS). Staff is insured against sickness, the risk of occupational disease and accident as well as entitled under certain conditions to a monthly unemployment allowance, the right to receive payment of invalidity allowance and travel insurance.

For further information on working conditions please refer to the Staff Regulations and the CEOS.

A contract of employment will be offered for a period of five years, with a probationary period of nine months. The contract may be renewed.

Frontex requires selected candidates to undergo a vetting procedure executed by the National Security Authority of the candidates' state of citizenship in order to obtain a personnel security clearance. The level of the latter depends on the specific post/position. For this post, the required level of clearance is specified on the title page of the Selection Notice. Candidates who currently hold a valid personnel security clearance at the above-mentioned level (or higher) may not need to obtain a new one, pending confirmation from their respective National Security Authority. The National Security Authority of the candidate shall provide Frontex, with an opinion or a personnel security clearance in accordance with relevant national legislation. In case selected candidates do not currently hold a valid security clearance at the above-mentioned level, Frontex will request such from the National Security Authority of the candidates' state of citizenship. In case of a failure to obtain the required personnel security clearance or if the National Security Agency issues a negative opinion at the above-mentioned level after the signature of the contract of employment Frontex has the right to terminate the contract of employment.
